

Advancing School Behavioral Health in a Critical Time of Need, Recovery and Opportunity

Dear presenters,

It is my pleasure on behalf of the Southeastern School Behavioral Health (SSBH) Conference Program Committee to inform you that your Poster Presentation Proposal "Intervention Framework to develop Steeling Effect through Interactive Gaming Technologies" (Reference Submission #93) has been accepted as written for inclusion in the SSBH Conference in April 2022. Poster presentations will be presented and displayed in the Myrtle Beach Conference Center Ballroom from 4:30-6:30pm on Thursday, April 28th. The Poster Presentation Session is connected to the Conference Reception which will take place at the same time, in the same room.

As outlined in the Call for Proposal, registration for the conference by all presenters is required. If you are a "Student Presenter" you may register using the student rate. Both students and others can register on-line at https://secure.touchnet.net/C21544\_ustores/web/product\_detail.jsp?PRODUCTID=4730&SINGLESTORE=true

Please note: Rooms at the Conference Hotel are being reserved very quickly. You may reserve a room at <https://schoolbehavioralhealth.org/hotel-booking/>

If you have questions or comments for the program committee, please feel free to contact us at this email address. The Southeastern School Behavioral Health Conference traditionally draws attendees from a variety of professional groups. We know that you will find the audience to be well informed and engaged. As we are currently planning on hosting an in-person event, know that we are watching COVID-19 very closely and will keep you informed of any key changes. We look forward to seeing you in April.

Thank you and congratulations,

2022 Southeastern School Behavioral Health Conference Leadership Team

Kelley McCarthy, Conference Coordinator

Robert Stevens, Conference Co-Chair

Hunter Bury, Poster Sub-Committee Coordinator

This conference receives significant support from the South Carolina Department of Education-Office of Special Education Services as part of a broad initiative to improve programs and services for students placed in, or at risk for placement in special education. In your presentation, please be sure to make some connection to these students. Thank you.
